

Who can borrow library Materials?

- Any resident of Baldwin County with an ID or Proof of Address
- Children under 14 must have permission from their guardian,
- Children under 10 must be accompanied by a library card holding adult while on the Bookmobile.

What if the items I borrow get damaged/destroyed?

- Borrower is responsible for any and all borrowed materials. You will be charged for the replacement cost of the item.

How long can I have items out?

- Checkout periods are for two weeks. Four renewals are allowed as long as the item isn't on hold for someone else.

How many items can I check out at once?

- 25 items. However, only 5 can be media items (DVD/ Blu-ray, Audiobooks, CD's, etc.)

What if you don't have what I want?

- Materials can be placed on hold from any library in the county. Items will come to you when they are available.
- Some items are also available from outside of the county through our InterLibrary Loan program! There is a $2.00 fee for this service.
- Please give us two weeks advanced notice for items in bulk like holiday collections or specific subjects.

What if I can't meet the Bookmobile to return the materials I borrowed?

- Please renew your materials through one of our contact methods, return the items to any library in Baldwin County, or mail them back to:
The Baldwin County Library Cooperative
P.O. Box 399
Robertsdale, AL 36576.
